

Daniel Cruz Gonzalez
Chair

Daniel Cruz Gonzalez is a retired City of San Diego employee who served the City diligently in a number of responsible positions for over 35 years, which included Project Manager in the Redevelopment Division. He retired from the City in 2004 as Director of the Transportation Division. He is very active in community affairs and has a distinguished record of service on several boards and commissions including the Mexican American Business and Professional Association, SDSU Advisory Committee, and Neighborhood House Association Board of Directors. He earned his BA from UCLA and a Certificate in Management and Human Services from UCSD.