

Richard Geisler
Director

Richard “Rich” Geisler started his career in Phoenix after graduating with an Environmental Science degree from Northern Arizona University. He moved to San Diego in 2000 to attend law school at the University of San Diego. During his law school career, Rich interned for the Department of Justice in Washington DC, the United States Marine Corps, the City of San Diego Redevelopment Agency and then Councilman Scott Peters. After graduating in 2003, Rich was then employed by former Council President Scott Peters until August of 2005 working as policy and council rep. In August of 2005 Rich went to work for J.Whalen Associates Inc. and his focus remains on development, entitlements, environmental processing and redevelopment. Rich is Vice President of the company. Rich is certified with the California State Bar and is also a certified Real Estate Broker. Rich is a LEAD 2008 graduate and was named in San Diego Metropolitan Magazine’s “40 Under 40” list in 2008. Rich is active in non-profits in the area and is the Co-founder and Board President of the Fuller Center for Housing of San Diego, a non-profit with an emphasis on improving living conditions for the less fortunate.
